

The Asian Staff and Faculty Association of Fresno State
invites you to attend

Exploring Possibilities for Making a Difference
an interactive workshop

Tuesday, February 10

1:00 - 4:00 PM

Henry Madden Library (HML) 2206

PURPOSE: To explore how AFSA can have a bigger impact as an integral component of Fresno State's Diversity & Inclusion strategy.

OUTCOMES:

- Increase knowledge of what is possible for AFSA as an affinity/resource group and learn best practices for successful affinity groups.
- Identify areas in which AFSA wants to make a difference.
- Consider what it would take to do so and how to make it happen.

Guest Speaker/Facilitator

Kay Iwata

President of K. Iwata Associates, Inc.

Ms. Iwata is an internationally recognized diversity management consultant, researcher and author. Her approach is global, strategic and systemic. It focuses on building from a strong business case that is anchored in the values and culture of the organization and its leaders. She has been named a Pioneer of Diversity by the Diversity Journal and published articles with SHRM and Diversity Central. Ms. Iwata has consulted in the UK, Japan, China and Latin America. Her client list includes Sodexo, Walmart, Johnson & Johnson, Genentech, County of Alameda and California State University.

This workshop is open to all AFSA members and non-members alike.
Be a part of shaping AFSA's future agenda!

RSVP by Feb. 4 to Dr. Gyanesh Lama: glama@csufresno.edu